1. Railroad cars were used by the Russians for transport of booty in the area of the Reichsbahndirektion Erfurt on 8 August 1946 as follows:
 - a. Two thousand eight hundred twenty-five cars loaded with booty, blocking all lines in the area.
 - b. Further quantities of material already awaiting dispatch will fill a further 5,000 cars.
 - c. In addition to the cars in use under a. and required under b., the Soviets have called for another 2,500-3,000.
2. A Soviet general, who is a transport expert, has arrived at Erfurt from Karlshorst, together with a large staff, in order to investigate congested conditions in the RBD Erfurt area.
3. For the first time the number of cars required on any one day for booty consignments has exceeded 3,000 (this has occurred since 1 August 1946).
4. Three million sleepers have, so far, been removed on Soviet orders, but they are to remain German property.
